

The Lewin and Irene Brown Community Service Scholarship

Class of 2022

The Brown Scholarship is sponsored by the Mildenhall Spouse Association (MSA) in recognition of Lewin and Irene Brown's 100 years of combined service to the military community. The Brown Service Scholarship seeks to reward graduating seniors and dependants who have contributed to their communities throughout high school.

ELIGIBILITY:

Applicants must:

- Be a graduating senior, who is a dependent of a military member or civilian employee of the Department of Defense at RAF Feltwell, Lakenheath, or Mildenhall; or a dependent who otherwise qualifies for command sponsorship due to the sponsor's assignment or employment in the United Kingdom, tribase area. Applicants must be co-located with their sponsor. (Including applicants whose sponsor fit the criteria above, but retired or died in the 12 months preceding the current LHS academic year).
- Be college or technical school bound students; including students of Lakenheath High School, those home schooled, UK schooled, and privately trained.
- Possess a valid military dependent Identification card.
- Submit completed applications by Friday April 8, 2022.
 - Please note that an application review will be offered to any applicant who submits their package by Friday February 25, 2022. This review will only verify that all necessary components of the application are included and does not offer preference over applications submitted beyond the review date.

AWARD:

- Two $1000 scholarships, one to a graduating senior and one to a qualifying area dependent.

GENERAL INFORMATION / CRITERIA:

- Scholarship is awarded for excellence in community service; based on demonstrated efforts within the community from the past 4 years and a written essay.
- The Brown Scholarship is administered by the Community Scholarship Association.
- The judging committee is comprised of diverse professionals who do not have an eligible dependent. Only one member of the committee represents the CSA.
- Applicants will be notified of the results in writing.
- Questions can be directed to the Community Scholarship Association by emailing, csatribasescholarships@gmail.com.

AWARD USE:

- Scholarship funds are to be used for undergraduate or technical studies, within the 2022-2023 academic year.
